

For the record, I am opposed to "a la carte" cable programming. It would mean that many important broadcasts would become unavailable to the general public.